COVID

Due to COVID-19, international travel may be subject to Government approvals, conditions or restrictions. To the fullest extent permitted by relevant law, Air New Zealand or Badminton Oceania is not liable for any losses related to flight cancellations which are due to the implementation or continuation of travel restrictions.

If the flight is cancelled due to COVID-19 related reasons, Badminton Oceania will manage the credit/refund process for all confirmed travellers.

Currently there are no government restrictions regarding travellers who have not been vaccinated against COVID-19, however should this become mandatory then all travellers would be expected to be compliant with any government regulations.

Air New Zealand reserves the right to reschedule flights and flight times.
