

OCEANIA TOUR 2022

Participating Events:

• Oceania Championships	International Challenge points	28 April – 1 May
• Sydney International	International Series	5 – 9 October
• Bendigo International	International Challenge	12 - 16 October
• North Harbour International	International Challenge	19 – 23 October
• Australian Open	HSBC World Tour Super 300	15 – 20 November
• New Zealand Open	HSBC World Tour Super 300	22 – 27 November
• Manawatu International	International Series	1 – 4 December

The Oceania Tour 2022 will comprise of 7 tournaments as listed above

The points calculations for the tour will be directly from the BWF World Rankings in all five disciplines: MS, WS, MD, WD, XD for each tournament

Following the last tournament; Manawatu International, the winner of each event will be announced; no later than 8 December 2022

Points for doubles are calculated per pair as per the BWF World Ranking List. Both players in a doubles pair must meet the eligibility criteria

The Tour rankings will show on the Badminton Oceania website: <https://badmintonoceania.org/oceania-tour/>

The aim of creating the Tour is to both provide an additional incentive to players to support tournaments in the region and to be able to provide the best players in the region with some additional financial support to attend international tournaments or training camps with the long-term aim performing to a high level in events of importance, ie. Olympic Games, Commonwealth Games, World Championships, Thomas & Uber Cup, Sudirman Cup, World Junior Championships

Eligibility

Players must meet BWF criteria to play Oceania Championships 2022 to be eligible to be a part of the Oceania Tour 2022

Players/pairs must play a minimum of 3 tournaments including a minimum of 1 outside of their home country in the Tour to be eligible for final Tour ranking.

Tour Winners

The Oceania Tour winners in each discipline will be announced no later than 8 December 2022

The winners to receive training/competition scholarships according to the amounts as below; paid to their MA for distribution and acquittal following implementation of the activity the scholarship is covering

Singles Winners – NZ$2,000 each

Doubles Winners – NZ$3,500 per pair

Players to submit a plan for the use of scholarship funds by 20 January 2023 to their MA and BOC

Once agreed by BOC the MA to forward payment to the players

Reporting and acquittal of the funds to be made no later than 10 July 2023

If a player/pair does not submit a plan by 20 January 2023, the funds to be returned to BOC.

In doubles events the pair must complete the same training/competition to spend the funds as a pair, ie. they must do the same project at the same time.